

Evergreen Safety Council Member Company Award Program

John D. Spellman Safety Award

Return Application by January 4, 2008

Special Recognition Award

This award is available to ESC member companies that have started a safety program during the past year or companies which have greatly improved their program over the past year. Please tell us why your company is deserving of this award.

Limiting your comments to one separate sheet of paper, please share your achievement – innovative safety programs and success stories for your business or community. Is there a safety story that you think should be told? During the past year did you develop any safety practices or engage in any safety training which contributed to this year's safety success? Are you aware of a program that resulted in a significant reduction of reportable injuries?

Nominations should be for the reporting year 2007. You may also nominate an organization or company that you feel has made substantial contributions to the safety field. Please limit descriptions to one page of double spaced typed at 12pt font.
